Each Expects Other To Make First Move For Negotiations

France Awaits Italy's Reaction To Her Warning

Premier Daladier In Radio
Address Says France Will Hold All Territory

UP TO ROME TO MAKE NEXT MOVE

France Is Willing To Examine Proposals About Existing Controversies

By MERRILL MUELLER
International News Service Staff

PARIS, March 30.—French government officials waited with keyed up interest today for the Italian reaction to Premier Edouard Daladier's radio address, in which the French statesman warned this country would give up no territory in the face of Fascist demands.

The opinion seemed to be in official circles that the next step in the gathering Italo-French controversy is now up to Rome.

In his speech on Sunday, Mussolini declared that Italy's claims upon France involve Djibouti, Tunisia and the Suez Canal, but Daladier, in reply, made it clear that France would refuse to relinquish "an inch of territory or a single one of her rights."

Negotiations Possible

He did not, however, close the door to negotiation of Italo-French problems, asserting that his government does not fear such negotiations and that "justice" will prevail.

Daladier, who urged all powers "who think as we do" to unite for preservation of peace, entered into what may become a lengthy diplomatic argument with Mussolini by flatly denying Il Duce's statement, made Sunday, that the Italian note of December 17, 1938, had specified Italy's claims with regard to Tunisia, the Suez Canal and Djibouti.

"I give you affirmation," Daladier declared into the microphone, "that this note contained no details. There was no question of Suez, of Djibouti or of Tunisia."

PA NEW OBSERVES

And by the way, don't forget that Saturday is April 1.

Today's rains brought a stop to the spading and digging of rear yard gardens which has been progressing rapidly for the past week.

This morning's heavy rain seemed to remind us that we were at April's door, which is always credited with showers of rain.

Wednesday, the city grader was being used to level off Vine street, and the street seems to look much improved by the work done.

Large quantities of stone, taken out by WPA workmen during the winter months, can be seen piled up at the Ray and Scott street quarries, all set to go, to be used in the city street projects this year.

Employees of the New Castle Electric Railway company have now completed the work of dismantling the trolley wires used in the Croton district for the operation of the recently discontinued street car service.

Late Wednesday afternoon, two boys pedaled through town on a bicycle built for two and hitched to the rear of the vehicle was a small trailer. In every line, the trailer was similar to a large one with streamlined details and its passenger was a dog, sitting sedately, looking through the little glass window.

Daily Weather Report

United States weather statistics for the 24-hour period ending at 5
p. m. Wednesday are as follows:
Maximum temperature, 48.
Minimum temperature, 22.
No precipitation.
River stage, 6.8 feet.
Statistics for the same date a year ago follow:
Maximum temperature, 65.
Minimum temperature, 43.

U. S., British And French Ambassadors Invited To Tokyo Conference

BULLETIN
(International News Service)

TOKYO, March 30.—Japanese Foreign Minister Hachiro Arita has invited the United States, British and French ambassadors to Tokyo to his residence tomorrow for "conversations on diplomatic affairs", it was understood today.

Nature of the proposed conversations, which aroused keen speculation, was not divulged.

It was regarded as significant,
however, that the reported invitation was issued immediately after a statement by Premier Baron Kichiro Hiranuma that Japan belongs neither to the democratic nor totalitarian bloc of nations.

This statement followed reports that Japanese friendship for Germany is cooling because of the Reich's alleged interest in regaining Chinese areas lost during the World war.

The premier added Japan is anxious not to antagonize either the democracies or the Fascist states.
He said basic principles of Japanese foreign policy have not changed, but that "definite measures to enforce it must be modified to meet changes in the international situation".

'Y' Campaign Workers Exceed Goal Of Drive In Second Report Session

Membership campaign workers of the Young Men's Christian Association, climaxing a drive which formally opened on Tuesday evening, topped their goal "on scheduled time" when they gathered for a second report meeting in the "Y" banquet hall last night.

They wanted 800 members—they actually got 882 and today at noon they had over 900.

They worked like beavers for $1,- 000 in cold cash—they turned in $1,- 177.50.

And Were They Happy?

The victory shout went up as the 140 volunteer team campaigners, all regarded as baseball players during the drive, heard General Secretary R. L. Meermans whisper the total to General Chairman H. A. Wilkinson after Assistant General Secretary Henry T. MacNicholas tapped out on an adding machine the significant verdict of the night.

The whispered figure was caught instantly and set off the applause and cheering that marks any triumphant drive.

Most of last night's dinner program, like that of the night before, was given over to team reports. Most captains answered Chairman Wilkinson's call, although a few were absent. Others reported for them. One team on the Yankee side asked to report later.

For the "Y" solicitors the successful finish brought a close to the spirited Giants-Yankees ball game.
The night before the Giants led, 6-3.
But, true to their warning, the Yankees, mighty sluggers, slugged in last night's "crucial ninth" and tied up the score, 6-6. General Chairman Wilkinson, "commissioner" to the players, suggested they play off the tie next year!

City Controller Sid Lockley led the

Hunt For Missing Plane In Swamp

Mississippi Farmer Reports He Saw Plane Come Down
During Storm

(International News Service)
PRENTISS, Miss., March 30.—Efforts were to be renewed today to search a large swampland 15 miles northeast of Prentiss, into which a farmer reported he had seen an airplane fall in flames yesterday.

The farmer, James Polk, reported to the sheriff's office at Prentiss that the plane fell during a heavy rainstorm, and that he could not say what type of ship it was, or whether it was large or small.

An attempt was made late yesterday to reach the spot, but no headway was made into the swamp.

It was believed the plane must have been privately owned, as no airports reported any planes missing or overdue. Every major air transport system stated today all ships were accounted for, and no army or navy planes were known to be missing.

Woman Held As Poison Murderer

(International News Service)

FITCHBURG, Mass., March 30.— Protecting her innocence, Mrs. Victoria Lefebvre, 53, today was placed under arrest for the alleged poisoning of her husband as police investigated the deaths of her two former husbands, one in Montreal.
Authorities said they had learned that the couple had quarreled over an insurance policy.

Distinguished Members Of Fraternity Take Part In Cathedral Program

Commemorating the 70th anniversary of Lodge of the Craft No.
433, F. and A. M. distinguished members of the Masonic fraternity from two states gathered at The Cathedral last evening for a dinner and program unique in Masonic annals of this city.

The occasion was one which will be long remembered by members of the Lodge of the Craft, and Masonry in general, the occasion being graced by the presence of Ill. Robert R. Lewis, 33, of Coudersport, Pa.; Right Worshipful Grand Master of Masons in Pennsylvania; Ill. John
A. Lathwood, 33, of Pittsburgh; Right Worshipful Senior Grand Warden; Ill. J. Philip Perry, 33, of Jefferson, O.; Past Grand Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ohio, and other grand lodge officers from Pennsylvania and Ohio, including district deputy grand masters from many surrounding districts.

Four Hundred At Banquet

The evening's program began with a banquet in the main dining room, attended by around 400 members of the host lodge, the three other local lodges, and visiting brethren.

The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Gershon S. Bennett, pastor of First Christian church. During the dinner, music was furnished by an orchestra from the Senior high school, under the direction of Joe Repligie.

After the dinner, a delightful musical program was presented. Mrs.
Helen Urmon Felch rendered several beautiful solo numbers in her usual charming manner, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Anna
Moore Pyle. The Brahms Ladies'

Spanish War Comes To End

(International News Service)

MADRID, March 30.—Peace came to Spain today, and with it the "intensive" police operations of Generalissimo Francisco Franco's victorious troops in preparation for the fascist leader's triumphant entry into Madrid.

Following surrender of Valencia, last important stronghold in central Spain to bow before the might of Franco's forces, the war that lasted more than 32 months was officially announced at an end.

This morning nationalist troops commanded by General Antonio Aranda entered Valencia, formally taking charge of the city, which had been delivered to Franco's agents early yesterday afternoon.

Mopping up activities were in full swing throughout the central zone as the Franco regime, now master of all Spain, consolidated its newly gained position.

Clark Gable And New Bride Returning To His California Ranch Home

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, March 30.—The San Fernando Valley ranch home of screen hero Clark Gable was in readiness today for the return from Nevada of Gable and his new bride, Carole Lombard, blonde screen beauty whom he married late yesterday in a surprise elopement to Kingman, Ariz.

It was an elopement that left the film colony buzzing with excitement, although it was a foregone conclusion the popular film pair was to be married shortly.

Gable, recently divorced in Nevada by Mrs. Maria Gable, and Miss Lombard had been spied on by reporters constantly since Gable was

FORMER FOOTBALL PLAYER BADLY HURT

Three New Castle men were hurt, one seriously, in an automobile crash at an intersection along the Youngstown-East Liverpool highway in Columbiana county, Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock.

Those injured:
Patrick James, aged 26, 941 South Mill street, former New Castle high school football player, in a serious condition, suffering with a possible broken back, cuts and bruises. He is confined to the South Side hospital, Youngstown.

Nicola Audria, aged about 45, Croton district, driver of the automobile bearing the local party, sustained five broken ribs, along the right side of the body, besides cuts and bruises. After receiving treatment in the South Side hospital, Youngstown, he was removed to the home of Dominic Scarazzo, 208 East Lutton street, last night.

ABOARD PRESIDENTIAL SPECI-AL ENROUTE SOUTH, March 30.—President Roosevelt toured Alabama today on his way to Warm Springs, Ga., for an Easter vacation, with stops arranged at two of the south's well-known educational institutions—one Negro, one white.

Tuskegee Institute and Alabama Polytechnic Institute, respectively, awaited the president's arrival. The executive planned extemporaneous speeches to the student bodies at each school, although White House aides predicted there would be nothing startling in either address.

Accompanying Mr. Roosevelt was his secretary of commerce, Harry Hopkins, just recovering from intestinal "flu". It was understood Hopkins would spend a week or ten days with the president at his Warm Springs cottage.

JEWELRY SALESMAN

IS ROBBED OF $25,000

(International News Service)
MARYSVILLE, O., March 30.—A widespread hunt was instituted today by state police for three bandits who robbed Herman Hamburger, 45, jewelry salesman, New York City of $25,000 worth of jewelry after kidnaping Hamburger and his Negro chauffeur, William Redmond.

Film Star Wounded In Attack

Delia Bogard (above), 17-year-old film star, was taken to Hollywood
General hospital with a fractured skull after being attacked on a lonely street in the film capital. Her assailant, police believe, was the same man who recently killed Anya Sosoyeva, Russian dancer.

Around 165 were present at the spring reunion of the Mullentowners Association, composed of former pupils of the West Side school and old residents of that community, which took place in Orr's hall Wednesday evening.

The affair proved so enjoyable that it was proposed to have another similar gathering before the summer picnic.

Hughie Hannon served as master of ceremonies in his usual inimitable style and kept things moving thruout the evening. Music was rendered by a Hawaiian orchestra and Shortie Mathews and his band also gave a number of selections.

Dancing was one of the main diversions of the evening, following which lunch was served.

Claire Glass was chairman of the committee on arrangements and his able committee had a splendid program arranged, which received the commendations of all present.

Brown Is Named As Comptroller

BULLETIN

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—The White House today sent to the senate the nomination by President Roosevelt of former U. S. Senator Fred Herbert Brown of New Hampshire to be comptroller general of the United States.

Appointment of Brown, supplanted in the senate at the opening of the current session in January by Charles William Tobey, a Republican, was for a term of 15 years. The appointment is subject to confirmation by the senate.

Mussolini Hints Italy's Defiance In Brief Speech

Says Italy Will Not Remain
A Prisoner Of The Mediterranean

MAKING TRIP TO INSPECT DEFENSES

No Clue As To Immediate Intentions As To France
Given By Il Duce

By EDWARD STORER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ROME, March 30.—Italy has no intention of remaining "a prisoner of the Mediterranean," Premier Benito Mussolini declared today in a brief but forceful answer to Premier Edouard Daladier of France.

Enroute to Calabria on the southwestern tip of the Italian boot, Il Duce stopped off at Cosenza and to a crowd of Blackshirts and peasants who turned out to greet him, declaring:

"Italy does not in the last intend to remain a prisoner of the Mediterranean."

To Inspect Fortifications Mussolini went to Calabria to inspect the fortifications of Italy's "toe." It was understood on reliable authority.

He might extend his "surprise" trip to Sicily. The town of Sirati was next on his schedule.

As Mussolini departed from Rome, between 100,000 and 130,000 specialists and officers of the 1905 and 1906 classes were called to the colors.
Italian officials described it as a "routine measure" to supply specialists and officers for the 300,000 new recruits called up on March 22.

Plans Are Veiled

Mussolini gave no clue as to his immediate intentions and did not divulge whether Italy plans any concrete advances to France, as suggested by Daladier as the only

Hold Suspect In Hollywood Case

Actor Is Being Interrogated In Connection With Dancer's Death

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, March 30.—Police early today said they were holding on suspicion of murder, Joseph D.
Bushane, 43, an actor, in connection with the death of Anya Sosoyeva, Russian dancer, on the campus of Los Angeles City college night school last February 24.

Bushane was arrested on a tip from an unidentified person.

Detectives were questioning him about the near fatal attack yesterday on Delia Bogard, young film actress, but Bushane denied knowledge of both crimes.

However, officers said, Ethel Chenette, 40, a circus performer, picked out Bushane from a group of men as the man who recently knocked her down and kicked her as she was returning from a theater last week, in the vicinity of the Bogard attack.

Clipper Reaches Lisbon, Portugal

Successfully Completes 1,000
Mile Flight From Horta
The Azores

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, March 30.—Successfully negotiating a 1,000-mile trans-ocean crossing, the Giant Pan American Airways Yankee Clipper arrived at Lisbon, Portugal, shortly after 11 A. M. (EST) today, according to a message received by the Western Union cable dispatcher.

Elapsed time for the flight from Horta, the Azores, was slightly more than seven hours. The Clipper is enroute to France and England on a shake-down cruise prior to inauguration of regular trans-Atlantic passenger service. The big flying boat started its cruise from Baltimore last Sunday.

Guam Program To Be Rejected

Military Plan Is Not Favored

Senate Naval Affairs Committee To Turn Down $5,000,000 Fund Proposal

FORMAL ACTION TO BE TAKEN SOON

(Copyright, 1939)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 30.—The senate naval affairs committee has informally agreed to reject the navy's proposal for $5,000,000 of military improvements on the Pacific Island of Guam, and to report favorably next week a bill providing about $60,000,000 for a string of naval air bases in the Pacific and Atlantic.

Chairman Walsh told International News Service today:

"There has been no formal action but I have talked it over with committee members and we have informally agreed to that procedure. I will call the committee together next week to report the bill. There will be no more hearings."

The Guam proposal was also rejected in the house. Walsh said that if "it was necessary later in the session," separate legislation would be introduced, or "that it might even be decided to report out a separate bill for Guam next week."

As informally agreed upon by committee members, the senate bill will provide for an air base at Jacksonville, Fla., and at Quonset Point, R. I. As passed by the house, the measure authorized construction or improvement of naval air bases as follows:

Kanoe Bay, Midway Island, Wake Island, Johnston Island, Palmyra Island, Kodiak, Alaska; Sitka, Alaska; San Juan, Puerto Rico; Pensacola, Fla.; Norfolk, Va.; Tongue Point, Ore., and Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

The proposal to improve seaplane landing facilities in the harbor of Guam precipitated the congressional attack on the administration's foreign policy several weeks ago.

Members of both the senate and house charged it was a flagrant violation of this government's treaty with Japan, which stipulates that neither country fortify its tiny islands in the Pacific; a "menacing gesture" to Japan, a nation with which the United States is on friendly terms; and "the first step to actual fortification."

Navy officials denied the department's plans called for fortification.

CLARK GABLE AND NEW BRIDE RETURN TO RANCH HOME

With Engle, with Winkler, Mrs. Engle and Howard Cate, Kingman high school principal, the long-published romance of the two famous stars was culminated.

Viola Olsen, county clerk at Kingham, revealed the romantic Gable and the glamorous Carole were very shy indeed when they appeared before her and asked for a marriage license.

Gable, she said, timidly asked her who she could recommend to marry them, and Miss Olsen, thrilled beyond words by presence of so great a pair, recommended Rev. Engle.

When the ceremony was over Gable and Miss Lombard headed for Boulder City, Nevada, where they planned to stay overnight, returning to Hollywood today.

Before they left, however, Gable turned reporter and called the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer press bureau in Hollywood to give details of the wedding.

Gable's Third Marriage

It was Gable's third marriage and the second for his wife.

Gable was first married to Josephine Dillon, a Hollywood drama coach, who did much towards starting him on his career as a movie actor. They were divorced and in 1931 he married Maria Langham, separating from her in 1935. On March 7 last Mrs. Gable secured a divorce from Clark in Las Vegas, charging him with wilful desertion.

Miss Lombard formerly was married to screen actor William Powell. They married in 1931 and were divorced—a friendly divorce—on Aug. 18, 1933.

The Gable-Lombard romance began in 1935, when they met socially at a house party and for the next three years gave gossip writers the opportunity to take almost daily turns in setting the date for their marriage.

Gable is 38 years of age and Miss Lombard is 29. Both have had numerous screen successes with Gable now cast to play perhaps the most important role of his career, that of Rhett Butler in "Gone With the Wind."

The Mississippi fatalities were listed as: James Marcus Meek, an oil driller of Canton, Miss.; S. M. Wilson, of Jackson; an unidentified woman; Miss Margaret Guice and Mrs. Ann Turner, both of Memphis, Tenn.

The bodies of Miss Guice and Mrs. Turner had not been recovered at a late hour this morning.

It was estimated that between 7 and 11 automobiles and one truck plunged into the stream after the bridge across Clear Creek collapsed. Highway officials launched an investigation into the cause of the bridge collapse this morning.

Thanked By Meermans

On behalf of the "Y" board of directors, General Secretary Meermans thanked "everyone who once more helped us achieve a victory."

Before adjourning the meeting he introduced Board Members J. Clyde Gillfillan, Thomas H. Hartman, S. Huston Rhoads, Ross M. Kirkpatrick, George E. Lyon, Attorney Homer C. Drake, Attorney Joseph R. McFate and John A. Butler, the active workers in the campaign.

The "Y" said additional subscriptions were being reported by team workers today. Some citizens, unintentionally missed by workers, were telephoning their subscriptions to the "Y."

It was evident, association officers said, that last night's final total would be boosted considerably before all the story is told.

five broken ribs along the left side of the body, besides cuts and bruises. He was removed to his home after receiving treatment in the South Side hospital, Youngstown.

According to Al Scarazzo, Hazlet, Pa., brother of Dominic, the local men were enroute to New Waterford, O. where Audria planned purchasing some furniture. At an intersection along Route 7, Youngstown-East Liverpool road, near New Waterford, Audria's car collided with an automobile driven by Charles Ward, Washington, Pa. Audria's car overturned several times and was completely smashed. Al Scarazzo said. Ward escaped injuries.

Mrs. Paul Mulig. Mrs. Amelia Mulig, aged 43 years, wife of Paul Mulig, of New Castle, who died in the New Castle hospital Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, is to be buried on Saturday. The requiem mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Ann's church, New Castle, and interment will be in St. Mary's cemetery, Beaver Falls.

Mrs. Mulig is survived by her husband, the following children, Mrs. James Sullivan, Anna, Eva, Steve, Ivan, Catherine, Alexander, Olga, Mildred and Paul Jr., all of New Castle, and three grandchildren. She also leaves her mother and three sisters in Europe.

James Carr.

Funeral services for the late James Carr, aged 78 years, of McKees Rocks, formerly of New Castle, are to be conducted at McKees Rocks Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. It is learned by local friends and relatives. Burial will also be at that city.

Mr. Carr, who died at 5 p. m. Tuesday, leaves his wife, Mrs. Anna O'Neil Carr, (also a former New Castle resident,) six children, one brother, J. C. Carr, of New Castle, and the following sisters, Mrs. Joseph McCormick of New Castle, Mrs. Patrick Meehan of Arlington, O., Mrs. James Rolls and Miss Margaret Carr of Los Angeles, Cal. He had been away from New Castle for about 38 years.

Mrs. Mary Gorley Reed

Mrs. Mary Gorley Reed, aged 84 years, widow of George V. Reed, died at the home of her cousin, E. Conner, of Grove City, R. D. 1, Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Reed was born in New Castle on January 19, 1855, daughter of Robert and Caroline Barber Patterson. She had lived in the vicinity where she died for the past 15 years, and was a member of the Central Presbyterian church in that section.

She is survived by one brother, T. A. Patterson, of New Castle, and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will take place Friday at 10:30 a. m. in the Corner home where she died. Rev. J. Cressy of Grove City will be in charge. Interment will be made in Greenwood cemetery, New Castle, at 12 o'clock noon, Friday.

Willis Andrew Lutz

Willis Andrew Lutz, aged 54 years, well known carpenter, died suddenly from a heart attack at his home in Neshannock township, New Castle R. D. 3, this morning at 6:20. Mr. Lutz had worked yesterday and was getting ready to go to work again this morning when he was stricken.

He was born in Slippery Rock township, son of Elisha and Rebecca Lutz, and passed all his life in Lawrence county. He is survived by his wife, Marie Price Lutz, one sister, Mrs. Harriet Booher of Wampum R. D. 1, three brothers, James of Ellwood City, Albert of New Castle, and Charles of Chewton, and a number of nieces and nephews. He was a member of the Neshannock United Presbyterian church.

The body has been brought to the Jos. B. Leyde mortuary, Highland at Winter, where friends may call and where services are to be conducted Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Grace-land cemetery.

The family will be at the mortuary tonight, Friday and Saturday nights, from 7 to 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Mary Mrozek Funeral.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Mrozek, 924 N. Ashland avenue, were conducted on Wednesday morning with a service at the home and later a mass in the Madonna church.

A funeral procession was formed by Sisters of the Holy Rosary, of which the deceased was a member and preceded the body to the church where the Rev. Fr. Edward Szelonk celebrated the requiem mass.

The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing relatives and friends who were present to pay their last respects to the departed one.

Interment was made in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were John Sniezek, Stanley Chmura, Jacob Wilk, Michael Raszewski, John Nastal and Konstantine Evanski.

means of breaking the present deadlock and opening negotiations for consideration of Italy's claims in Tunisia, Djibouti and Suaz.

His brief declaration left no doubt, however, that by one means or another Italy is determined to carry out consolidation and aggrandizement of its African empire.

It Duce devoted most of his talk to the overwhelming victory of Generalissimo Francisco Franco in Spain.

"I am happy," he said, "to visit this rich and generous soil at a moment when the hearts of all Italians swell with joy over the victory of General Franco."

Delay Negotiations

"The idiotic and miserable prophecies of Leftists have been destroyed by the will and faith of the Italian people."

Mussolini's blunt warning to France and other nations which from the Italian point of view, are seeking to deprive Italy of its just rights, was interpreted in some quarters as an indication that Duce does not intend, for the moment at least, to set in motion the diplomatic conversations proposed by Daladier.

His attitude from the outset has been that it is up to France to take the initiative in satisfying Italy's colonial aspirations. If this initiative is not forthcoming, some quarters believed, Duce may move as he sees fit in the territories under dispute, with the knowledge that Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler and Germany will back him to the hilt.

In demonstrating her unwillingness to discuss Italy's claims, France has closed the half-opened door. Virginia Gayda, editor who is close to Mussolini, wrote in the Giornale d'Italia.

"Italy will wait," he added, indicating that Duce has no intention of taking the first step towards opening negotiations with France. This statement also recalled Mussolini's warning of Sunday, that any delay might widen the rift between France and Italy until the breach would be impossible to fill.

On Sunday, Premier Mussolini declared Italian claims regarding Djibouti, Suaz and Tunisia were the principal issues separating the Italian and French governments. He asserted these claims had been set forth in the December 17 note to Paris. It was in this note that Italy denounced the Italo-French accord of January 7, 1935, as out-of-date.

To support his claim, Daladier made public the text of the December 17 note and the letter of reply handed by French Ambassador Andre Francois-Poncet to Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano on December 25.

Daladier made it clear that France is prepared to carry out "completely and loyally" the Italo-French accord of 1935, which Italy has denounced. While flatly ruling out territorial concessions, he added his government would be willing to "examine proposals that may be made to it."

The general opinion was that by taking this stand the French premier indicated he plans no advances to Italy for a reconciliation and that it is now up to Rome to make the next move.

RAILROAD MEN OPPOSING CANAL

sorted that, any additional revenue taken from them would force the railroads to close the engine house, repair shops and railroad yards in the New Castle district.

The resolution declared "it is unfair to further hamper our railroads by canal competition which expense we the taxpayers, must help bear, it being unfair to employees of railroads in this district to use the taxpayers' money to build the canal in competition against railroad service" and added "that, without reliable railroad service in the Shenango Valley the main artery of industry will be severed."

Coal Rate Cut

The resolution said the Pennsylvania Railroad has made a substantial cut in freight rates on coal between Pittsburgh and Youngstown, which offsets any need for a canal and further said that for a canal cost ($300,000,000 estimated by army engineers) will further unbalance the treasury, create unwarranted waste and most unfair competition against railroads in the vicinity of the canal, which when completed, will cause the loss of hundreds of jobs.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

NO INTEREST IN READING

A CHICAGO mother writes:
"Dear Dr. Myers—My boy, eight years old, is in the second grade. He missed most of the first year on account of sickness. I cannot get him interested in reading and spelling. He grows tired when I want him to read although he likes drawing and coloring and would do that any time." I answered her about as follows:

Please remember, Mother, that your child, just as you and I, loses interest in what he cannot do well and grows tired of it. Read aloud a great deal to him from illustrated books you can borrow from the public library. You also can find there books with pictures that will be easy enough for him to read.

Book Too Hard
His school book is too hard for him now. You must find things that are easier for him so he can succeed. There are several good magazines for children with very easy reading and things to do and draw and color. Encourage him to cut out pictures from old magazines and make a scrap book. You could print or type under each picture for him or have him print the name of the picture or objects in it. Be sure he knows the letters of the alphabet. Some poor readers don't you know.

You might print neatly a story as he makes it up. Then he will like to read it, since it is his. Better to type it if you have a typewriter. And he will like to copy words and sentences on the typewriter. It is also excellent to help him learn to spell.

Help in Spelling
As you help him in spelling, keep him at only two or three words at a sitting. Be sure the word is in large clear print and not near another word. Be very calm, so he will be. Have him look at the word carefully and pronounce it, then have him name the letters slowly in right order as he looks at the word. Have him do this again, then again, and don't let him try to spell it until he is sure he knows it. The main problem is to keep him from ever spelling a word wrong while learning it, therefore to be very careful and never to hurry. Praise him as he succeeds. Show no anger when he makes a mistake. Keep your voice soft and low. Exercise eternal patience.

Don't have him read or spell in the presence of another child who can read or spell better than he can, or he will feel ashamed. He must keep self-respect, courage and confidence.

It might be well to have his vision and hearing checked. If he doesn't hear sounds distinctly, he will have trouble both in reading and spelling. If he does not see clearly, or if the words and letters move about as he sees them, he will be hopelessly confused. And very best wishes to you and him.

THE GRANDPARENTS RAISE USUAL CRY

You ought to hear us sputter when we're on our homeward way. For as grandpa and as grandma now we've quite a lot to say. Did you ever hear such nonsense as that nurse in white recites? You mustn't rock the baby or he'll never sleep o' nights!

I have long had admiration for a nurse's cap and gown. And I never for a moment thought at once I'd ever frown. But it made me mad as thunder when that dame in white appeared. And said: "Now please remember there are germs in grandpa's beard."

"You mustn't rock the baby! Mustn't walk him when he cries! Mustn't kiss his toes or fingers; from such contacts fevers rise." "Oh, I've never heard such nonsense!" Grandma turns to me to say.

"One would think we're dreadful people from the things I've heard her say. 'One would think that we had never raised a baby of our own. In our cafe I'd like to tell her was that baby's father grown? 'But,' I tell the sputtering grandma, 'in another week or two Cap and gown will have departed, and we'll tell them what to do.'"

Answer—The wedding ring should be put on first. The engagement ring should act as a guard over it.

Dear Miss Markel—Is it proper to give a miscellaneous shower to a woman who is marrying for the second time?

Cities, Farmers Stop Tax Cuts
Disputes Prevent Reductions Urbanites Say Farmers Get Most

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Everybody in this country wants everybody else taxed for his benefit. As for the taxes levied against HIM, he thinks they're awful. Doubtless this is true the world over. It's true here, anyway. We have two broad general groups—urbanites and farmers. Along their respective fringes they merge more or less. There also are sub-groups. In the main, however, they classify about 50-50. As a notable urbanite I would mention Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York City. The "Little Flower" is not now a member of congress, but he has been, and he still has a lot of influence in Washington. And obviously he's outstandingly urban, from the very nature of his present job. As a conspicuous farmer, I'd suggest Senator Ellison D. Smith, chairman of the upper congressional chamber's committee on agriculture.

Now, there's practically unanimous agreement upon the proposition that the huge size of our national expenditures is what keeps our taxes so high; to reduce taxes it's clear that we must cut expenses somewhere.

"Well," say the urbanites, "it's manifest that the farmers are getting too much—parity benefits, soil conservation allowances and such stuff. Let's trim 'em by about a billion."

"By no means," answer the ruralites. "We're underfed as it is, but urban relief is overdue. Let's chop that down, and, if anything, give us farmers a good bit more."

"All right," warn the city legislators. "If you hicks won't vote with us, we won't vote with you." "It's reciprocal," threaten the ruralites.

This kind of talk, pro and con, has been going on for weeks on Capitol Hill. Hence we don't get anywhere with any sort of reduction.

States Versus Uncle Sam
We have 48 states. Each state avers that it can't stand its own tax load; it must be helped out by the other 47.

It's as if we had a society of 48 men, each of whom needed $1, but each of whom professed to have only 50 available cents of his own. And it's as if, in order to overcome this difficulty, it were to be proposed that each should ante his individual four bits into a common, federal fund—each then, to take his desired $1 out the joint kitty.

Naturally anyone would know that each of the 48 intended to grab his $1 (or more too) out of the $24 pool and get away with it, leaving late comers to hold the sack.

It's just so with the various states. Their respective senators and representatives in congress understand perfectly that federal, state and still more sub-divisional taxes come, altogether, out of the same basic pockets, but each delegation counts on its home state to flim-flam the other 47.

What's Per Capita?
Every little while some statistician reckons what our taxation rate is per capita.

His figure signifies precious little. Usually he considers only federal levies. They're largely concealed, in tariffs and stamp imposts. But assume their federal accuracy. Still they don't include more local rates. And if these latter ARE included? They can't be averaged. In one small community, where the assessor is moderate, maybe the property holder gets off quite easily; elsewhere he's soaked mercilessly. There isn't an average, in any true sense.

Senator Homer T. Bone demonstrated it the other day. The Washington statesman offered a bill to put a thumping stiff federal tax on incomes in wartime.

But he forgot to allow for the fact that most states tax incomes, too.

Consequently he urged a federal income tax so high that, plus local income taxation, the two taxes, combined, will be considerably higher than the incomes to be taxed, in several states.

Now, when the tax collector has taken all that there is, can he get more yet?

I wouldn't think so, even in wartime.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WEST POINT
In scenic Hudson Valley, between the historic river and green Catskill Mountains, U. S. Military Academy cadets drill and study where Revolutionary soldiers fought—because George Washington and his generals believed that West Point was, and would always be, the military key to the entire United States!

Only yesterday, as history goes—one hundred thirty-seven years ago, the academy was established, with ten cadets, at the "strategic" point that was to be strongly fortified "perpetually." Today when war is waged on whole populations, with machines of death that may lay waste great cities, the fortifications of that tiny spot in Hudson Valley are insignificant in the board field of national defense.

The military map West Point men now study is the map of a vast continent; and defense of the far away Pacific Coast has grown so important that plans are being drawn for new military and naval academies in California. Our forebears were wise to found a school to ensure trained army leadership—but the tremendous future scope of that task was beyond human imagination in their day.

Mr. Garner And Mr. Farley

WASHINGTON, March 30. AS we approach the 1940 Presidential Convention, the first delegates to which will be selected in a little more than ten months, it becomes clearer that control of the Democratic one will be largely in the hands of two men—Vice-President Garner and Postmaster General Farley.

THERE, of course, will be other delegate-controlling leaders cooperating and consulting, but they will be the most influential. Certainly, they are so recognized now and that fact alone tends to make them more so, it being the disposition of the smaller leaders to ally themselves with the larger. At this time most politicians agree on the probabilities of a Garner-Farley dominated convention, and despite the points that can be made against it, a good many consider the nomination of either a Garner-Farley or a Farley-Garner ticket as logical an outcome as that the Republican choice will be Dewey and Taft or Taft and Dewey.

ON THE one side there is the chance that the greatly respected Mr. Cordell Hull may develop as the most available man and, on the other, that Senator Vandenberg, who is sincerely not a candidate, may be "drafted." And there is always the remote chance of some unforeseen circumstances bringing one of the minor party figures to the front. But on the off-tested theory that it is the expected which happens in politics the Garner-Farley and Taft-Dewey combinations are indicated. Any other involves dropping the first-string men for the second string. It may happen, but it isn't likely, and when the situation is stated in simple terms the reasons are clear.

FIRST, it ought to be plain not only that Mr. Roosevelt will not be re-nominated but that he will not be in a position to dictate the nominee. Both these things are accepted by every practical politician—disputed only by the uninformed or the extreme New Deal partisan not in position to be realistic. But, assuming that the President wants to do these things, certainly it will be conceded he cannot do either without the aid of Mr. Garner and Mr. Farley; and if Mr. Garner and Mr. Farley are not utterly opposed to both, then nothing in the situation makes sense at all.

THOSE who know them best are completely convinced of that. They are understood to feel, as do most other regular Democrats that action along those lines would widen the Democratic split and deprive the party of hope. Perhaps the soundness of this feeling is best attested by the inability of the Republicans to disguise that next to the third-term issue they would most welcome the nomination of an extreme New Dealer, such as Mr. Murphy or Mr. Hopkins. Certainly Mr. Garner would strongly oppose both and, despite his personal loyalty to the President, if under any circumstances, Mr. Farley could be gotten to acquiesce in either, those who know him best are wholly wrong.

AS things are today, the anti-New Deal Democrats seem solidifying behind Mr. Garner while the practical party politicians look to Mr. Farley for leadership. There are other men who will have to be considered and consulted, but in any convention made up of this one will be of un-instructed delegates and a few favorite-son candidates, control ought not to be difficult for the two. The reasons the President will not dominate are, first, because he is on the way out and the gratitude of the jobholders is for what they can get, not for what they have had; second, because while the machine which Mr. Farley has built up in the last six years has been used for Mr. Roosevelt, the adherence of the practical men who control state primaries is to Mr. Farley. He is the man with whom they have dealt; he speaks their language and is their personal friend.

Names Carved In Rock At Cascade Park Here Survived Over 100 Years

There is nothing so lasting as cold type or deeply chiseled names in rocks, and apparently, despite the passage of time and inroads of nature, the handwork of persons who romped at Cascade Falls, in the Big Run at Cascade Park, more than a century ago, is yet visible.

No doubt when the names are read, their grand and great grandchildren may journey to the picturesque falls to see the work of their forbears, which dates back to 1830. The names are carved on the flat rock, over which unestimable tons of water has fallen.

It was in 1830 that F. M. Rigby carved his name and the date in the big rock which after 100 years is yet decipherable and only four years later, or in 1834, J. P. Stevenson did likewise. On May 28, 1844, G. M. Shoff placed his name and the date on the rock.

It was in the same year that two persons, S. A. B. and J. L. B. cut their initials into the rock and the trying days of the Civil War are called by the name of J. C. Johnston who carved his name in the huge rock in 1861.

It was on the twenty-fifth day of April, in the same year that J. C. McMillen placed his name on the rock while 1864, August 25, to be precise, J. D. Orr left his name for people to read.

The rock is at the top of the spillway in the Big Run, where once upon a time fish were reported plentiful and where no doubt some of the persons who wrote their names in the rocks of time, stood beneath the falls on hot days, to cool off from torrid sun rays.

Graham Opposes Parity Payment Fund Of $250,000,000

Congressman Votes Against Huge Appropriation Measure In House

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Representative Louis Graham of Beaver supported the coalition of Republicans and Democrats in the House of Representatives this week who sought to save $250,000,000 in taxpayers' money by striking that amount from the Department of Agriculture appropriation bill.

The quarter billion dollars was for parity payment to farmers. It had been rejected by the Budget Bureau, but was placed in the bill by the House appropriations committee. The House, after a rowdy battle, voted to reject the appropriation by a close 204 to 191 ballot. Representative Graham was one of those voting to refuse the appropriation. Parity lines were broken and enough Democrats joined with Republicans to defeat the $250,000,000 expenditure by a narrow margin. This was regarded as a distinct victory for those interested in economy.

War In China Hits Japanese Pottery Exports

Production Of Japanese Pottery Shows Large Drop During Past Year

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 30.—Japan's peace-time pottery industry, which usually ships substantial exports into the United States to compete with potteries here, has been seriously affected by the long-continued hostilities in China, the Commerce Department is informed by the American consulate at Nagoya.

Japan's production of pottery during 1938 was 24 per cent below that of 1937, due to declining exports and rising production costs. The United States purchased 57 per cent less Japanese pottery in 1938 than in 1937. Nevertheless, the United States last year took 25 per cent of Japan's total sales of this ware. Exports of these articles to the United States were valued at $2,700,000 in 1938.

Current statistics indicate that during 1939 further declines are being registered in American purchases of Japanese pottery.

One authority states that Antonio Stradivari usually completed the construction of one of his famous violins in about a week.

ANNIVERSARY OF LODGE OF CRAFT IS CELEBRATED

Chorus, directed by David W. Rees, gave several numbers which were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Julia White was the accompanist. Concluding the musical program were two numbers by Miss Kay Bittner, talented young violinist, of the city, accompanied by Frank D. Taylor.

Worshipful Master Dennis E. Steurdevant then introduced Ill. John S. Wallace, 33, Puissant Grand Lieutenant Commander, of the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction, A. A. S. R., and the oldest living Past Master of Lodge of the Craft in point of service, who presented the distinguished guests who were present for the occasion.

Distinguished Guests
They included: Right Worshipful Grand Master, Ill. Robert R. Lewis; Right Worshipful Senior Grand Warden, Ill. John A. Lathwood; District Deputy Grand Master, Ill. J. Russell Urmon, 33, of District No. 28; Paul H. Magnus, of Pittsburgh, Grand Steward of the Right Worshipful Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania; Ill. Paul M. Moore, 33, Deputy Grand Commander of the Right Eminent Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania; Ill. Ellis B. Bernard, of Beaver Falls, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 37; James G. C. Cole, of Franklin, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 23; Ben R. Boisel, of Meadville, District Deputy Grand Master of District No. 25; Paul H. Connor, of Coudersport, District Deputy of District No. 44; Sion B. Smith, of Pittsburgh, District Deputy of District No. 32.

Ill. Thomas N. McKee, 33, of Kittanning, Pa., District Deputy of District No. 27; Harry Klinzig, of Pittsburgh, Pa., District Deputy of District No. 47; Harold Oberman, of Pittsburgh, Pa., District Deputy of District No. 51; Albert T. Eyer, of Pittsburgh, Pa., District Deputy of District No. 48; Ill. Andrew B. Berger, 33, of Pittsburgh, Pa., member of the Committee on Masonic Homes of the R. W. Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania; Ill. George B. Bergerm, of Pittsburgh, Past Sovereign Prince of the Council of Jerusalem, Pittsburgh Consistory.

Fred L. Rentz, president of The News Company; Jacob F. Rentz, Manager of The News Company and Richard R. Rentz, of The News Company advertising department, the only family having three generations who are members of Lodge of The Craft.

Ill. J. Philip Perry, 33, of Jefferson, O., Past Grant Master of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Ohio; Ill. Harry Manchester, 33, of Youngstown, O., District Deputy Grand Master of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Ohio; James J. Tyler, Grand Historian of the M. W. Grand Lodge of Ohio; Herman N. George, of Youngstown, O., secretary of St. Albans Lodge No. 67, and A. M. James Cluxton, George W. Montgomery, who accompanied the above group of Ohio officers, together with Henry Schmutz, secretary of the Youngstown Bodies, A. A. S. R.

Frank C. Perrine, secretary of Venango Lodge of Perfection, A. A. S. R., and George D. Dedrick of Oil City, Pa., Ill. Samuel H. Hadley, 33, and Ill. Frank C. Shively, 33, of Sharon, Pa., Ill. Benjamin R. Williams, 33, of Butler, Ill. Carl C. Kennedy, 33, of Grove City, Pa., Ill. James P. Toler, 33, Past Thrice Potent Master and Past Sovereign Prince, of Valley of New Castle Consistory, A. ## The Great Game Of Politics

FOR example, no one doubts that today Mr. Farley has "in the bag" the delegates to the next convention from the Virgin Islands, the Philippines, Puerto Rico and Alaska, just as he had in 1931 for the 1932 convention. Nor is there much doubt that Mr. Farley will control the delegation from that state rather than the Corcoran-Jackson-Hopkins group, which from time to time solemnly discusses ways of taking it away. Mr. Garner, of course, will start off with the big Texas delegation, but he will have a lot more than that. The logic of a controlling combination between Mr. Garner and Mr. Farley is clear and there is reason to believe that they pretty well understand each other now.

THEY HAVE the same feeling about the Democratic party; the same feeling about third terms; the same feeling about the "intellectual liberals". In addition, they are equally convinced that the man nominated for President must be supported by Mr. Roosevelt. Most observers will agree as to that and then the names of Garner and Farley are the first to come to mind. One is his Postmaster-General, who has served him long and loyally; the other made his nomination possible in 1932 and has been twice on the ticket with him. Both have received from the President the highest praise; both have been proclaimed his friends. Named on a platform which indorses his Administration and praises him, Mr. Roosevelt might not like it, but he could not escape from supporting them. At least that is the way the practical politicians see things now.

Big Clipper Has Reached Honolulu
(International News Service)
HONOLULU, T. H., March 30—With the largest passenger list ever carried across the Pacific, Pan American Airways giant California clipper landed at Honolulu at 8:24 a. m. (PST) after a 15 hour and 24 minute flight from Treasure Island, San Francisco.
The big plane, one of the fleet of new super clippers, carrying 25 passengers and a crew of 11 on its maiden passenger flight, took off from the port of trade winds at Treasure Island at 5:20 p. m. yesterday.
All three legislators were struck and knocked down by an automobile while crossing a street outside the main capitol building, but Kane alone complained of injuries.
Kane said the motorist was a relief recipient operating without automobile insurance.

Cosmo Stag Is Enjoyable Event

Group Hears Addresses By Ralph Criswell And Ray Showalter Last Night

EVENT PROVES MARKED SUCCESS

Cosmo club members learned the importance of finger printing and various problems confronting the chief of police, Wednesday evening, when they held a delightful stag party in the Cosmo club, North Mercer street.

Dr. Alec Ruzewich, president of the organization, opened the event with an appropriate talk after which he introduced Ray Showalter, chief of detectives here. In a comprehensive manner Showalter traced the origin of finger printing to 200 B.C. when the Chinese government made finger printing compulsory. By 1858, an extensive study was started in England. In 1901, the English government turned it over to Scotland Yard. By 1903, finger printing was introduced in the United States, at the St. Louis World's Fair, Showalter said.

Through the medium of charts, Showalter showed how finger prints are classified. "Prints help police departments to identify lost persons and kidnappers, besides helping to solve crimes," Showalter brought out. He also cited the fact that New Castle high was the first school in the United States in which students were finger printed, a few years ago. He explained how the federal bureau cooperates with local police. In conclusion, Showalter said, "I hope the time comes when the people of this country recognize the value of finger printing." The address was thoroughly enjoyed by the group.

Police Chief Speaks
Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell gave an address, explaining various problems confronting his office. Juvenile delinquency is one of the biggest problems on hand. A youngster is brought into my office. The first thing, what to do to make him realize that he is setting out on the wrong foot? Sometimes a lecture does some good, depending on the boy's nature. Help from local parents would aid tremendously," Criswell asserted. He further stated that juvenile delinquency is increasing here. Intoxicated drivers form another major problem.

"Gentlemen, you would be surprised how much degeneracy there is in a city the size of New Castle. It's astounding, in fact unbelievable," the local police head pointed out. He compared the various changes that have occurred in police work during the past ten years. He related several experiences during his early days as a policeman. "Before, if you could use a gun, you were qualified to become a policeman. Today, a prospective policeman is sent to the state training school for a four month's training period. There, he learns alertness and other important phases of police work. A chief's desk is like a clearing house," Criswell said.

A delicious luncheon was served at the conclusion. The gathering whiled away the time playing cards, ping-pong and discussing numerous topics of the day. The event proved one of the most successful in some time.

There is not much known as to the fate of some of the 12 apostles, but according to various traditions, all the original 12 met violent deaths except John, who alone died a natural death at an advanced age.

OLD FAITHFUL STILL GOING

A long time user of the famous World's Tonic, with alkalines, pays the following nice tribute: "I have been using World's Tonic so many years now for our whole family that my husband calls it 'Old Faithful.' It is a fine laxative tonic for the children and helps keep up their vitality during school days. It is very good for preventing sour stomach and indigestion, when due to constipation." The cascara bark in World's Tonic is collected at least a year before being used. Used for many ailments by thousands of families for over twenty years. ## Chestnut Street Paving Discussed

Will Not Be Placed On Favored List Mayor McGrath States

Until a better plan is devised, the "first come, first served" paving plan will be adhered to by city council, Mayor Charles E. McGrath in council meeting in city hall today told a Chestnut street paving delegation. The delegation, headed by Theodore Klingensmith, asked that Chestnut street be paved soon. He charged streets in other sections had been favored and asserted it being an old street, it should be assigned a preferred rank.

Mayor McGrath explained the paving procedure. Councilmanic colleagues said that no favoritism had been followed; instead, streets were and yet will be paved in the order in which petitions were and are submitted.

The mayor asked if Klingensmith or anyone else had a better plan to suggest. Councilman William H. Dunlap said he did not wholly believe in the "first come first serve" plan for paving. However, he advanced no better plan invited by the mayor.

Mayor McGrath explained that Huron avenue paving was put in a fore rank because the federal government erected a new armory, paved around the building, thence to the city line.

The delegation was assured that Chestnut street paving would be given its rightful place on the paving program.

Great Britain has been experimenting with welded railway rails. An unbroken track of 1,260 feet has been made. This greatest length of continuously welded rail is on the track of the London and North Eastern railway, near York, and has made very much smoother travel with reduced noise. Heretofore 60-foot lengths of rail were considered the limit in practicality.

Townsmen To Dine As Contest Closes

Banquet Is Scheduled For The Castleton Hotel On April 5

Members of The Townsmen civic group, will banquet in The Castleton Wednesday evening, April 5 to celebrate the close of a contest sponsored this winter to promote their own attendance at The Townsmen-sponsored boys' club meetings in the Scioto street district.

The Blacks, led by Captain Frank Clary, gained a one-point advantage over the Reds last night in another contest which the club itself is conducting for attendance at its weekly meetings in the "Y". President Joseph R. McFate reported.

Chairman Robert E. Hoose of the knocker's committee made the committee's annual report last night. Don Thompson assisted him.

News Briefs

From City Hall

Council went on record today as favoring a $10 outlay monthly, or half the rental required for a room in which the department of public assistance surplus food committee will operate. The county will pay the remaining $10. It is said the committee will rent a room where food may be distributed to the needy instead of them going to grocery stores in the city. The shift was caused, Mayor Charles E. McGrath was informed, because of the high truckage cost.

Bay of Naples is 16 quarts of liquor short and also minus a radio and cigarette machine, police were told, because of a robbery some time between closing hour and opening hour this morning. According to suspicion, a man and woman participated in the theft at 6 a. m. today, a resident above the saloon claiming to have heard a man and woman talking in the saloon.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Civic Club Has Luncheon Meeting

Several Projects Are Discussed
At Meeting In Ward
On Wednesday

Meeting in the Mahoning Methodist church, Wednesday at noon, members of the Seventh Ward Civic club had another of the popular luncheon sessions.

Jack Brettell, president of the organization, led the group in the discussion of several proposed projects.

A great deal of discussion regarding the Route 18 project was heard, with ideas both pro and con being brought to light. A discussion was also held regarding the proposed paving of East Cherry street.

It was learned that this Cherry street job will probably be approved for this year. As yet just a few more signatures for the petition are required to make the consent unanimous.

Next meeting will be held in two weeks at the Liberty Hotel.

Special Services
To Be Continued

Rev. Frank Neigh Conducts Service Wednesday Night In Methodist Church

Rev. D. J. Blasdel, pastor of the Mahoning Methodist church, today announced that the series of special services will continue until next Wednesday night. The services will be held nightly, except on Saturday evening.

Wednesday night, Rev. Frank S. Neigh delivered the special sermon, and tonight Rev. W. V. McLean is scheduled as the speaker.

According to Rev. Blasdel, all of the services thus far have been very successful, with good audiences in attendance for all of the meetings.

Special music is arranged and presented at each service, to add variety to the program.

NEWS BRIEFS IN WARD DISTRICT

Fishermen in the district are digging out their poles and tackle and getting the equipment cleaned and ready for the coming season.

Seventh Ward people are great for fishing, and many persons have already secured a license.

Just around the curve outside the ward on North Liberty street a large hole has developed in the new black top surfacing. This hole has been causing motorists a bit of trouble, and it seems to be growing in size daily.

One of the old large size dollar bills was handed to a clerk in a ward store Wednesday, and for a moment the clerk was a bit skeptical about the bill. These bills are now quite scarce. One merchant has one framed in his store.

There was an automobile on Liberty street, Wednesday bearing a new license plate from the state of Wyoming.

OUTDOOR MEETING
Boy Scouts of troop 4 plan to have an outdoor meeting Thursday night, weather permitting. The boys will meet at 5 o'clock at the end of West Clayton street.

The scouts will have their own food and cook a meal while on the hike. Contests and exhibitions will make up the evening program.

Scribe, John McCann.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 8 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatism, migraines, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

APRIL SHOWERS WON'T CATCH THEM UNPREPARED

Jo Ann Sayers

Lynne Carver

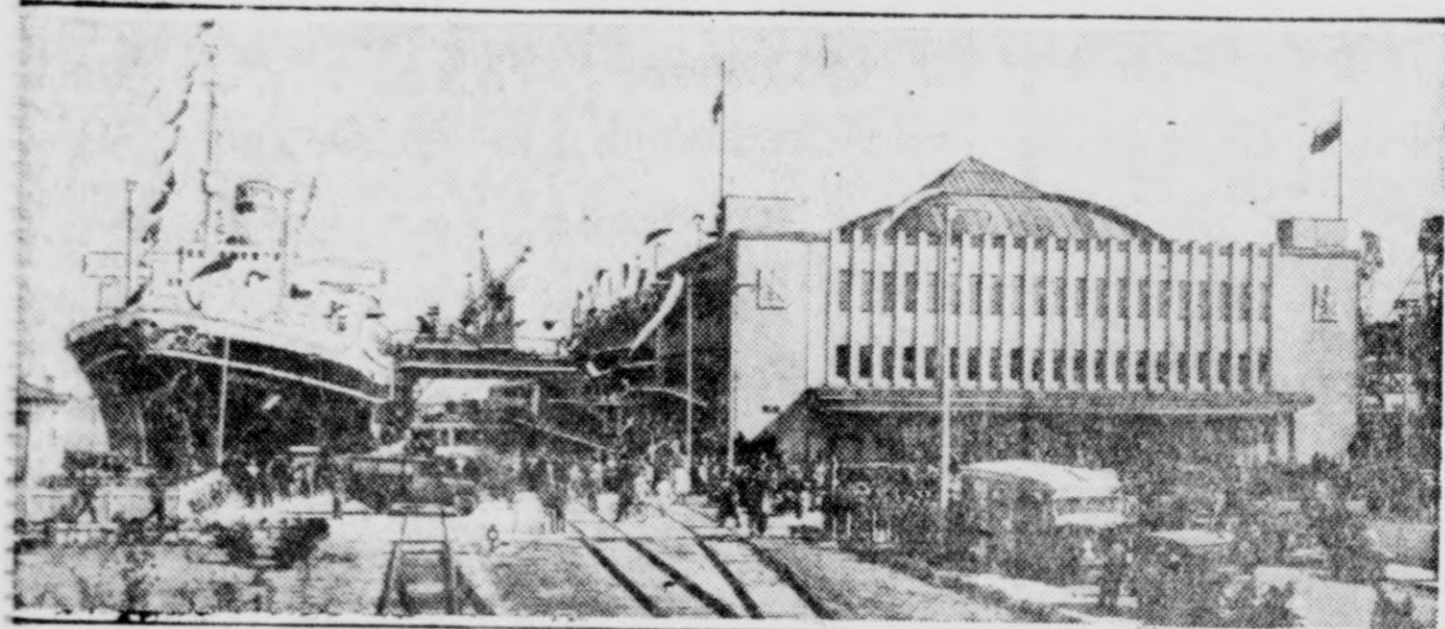

All set for those rainy spring days sees Jo Ann Sayers, film actress, looking pert in bright green transparent oileik with green flowered umbrella. Lynne Carver, also in the movies, sports a reversible plaid trench coat with hood attached and carries a cellophane umbrella. Note white galoshes.

Vie for Typical American Boy Title

Six finalists, selected from hundreds of lads throughout the United States, drink a toast (with milk) to luck, in New York. Toasting took place as the boys awaited the judging for the title of the typical American boy. Winner receives $1,000 and will make appearance on the radio. Left to right top row: John Simpson, 11, from Hollywood; Teddy Cahill, 14, from Pittsfield, Mass.; and Tom Ferrick, 14, from Philadelphia. Front, left to right: Karl McCready, 13, from Louisville; Charles Humfeld, 12, from St. Louis; and Bobby Macaulay, 8, from Duluth, Minn.

Poland Armed to Teeth For Defense of Gdynia

WARSAW, Poland—Poland, which in 1934 forced Germany to sign a ten-year non-aggression pact under threat of invasion, is today arming to the teeth in anticipation of a demand from Hitler for the Polish Corridor, which separates Germany from East Prussia. With a large export trade and a merchant marine of 66 vessels, including the crack liners Pilsudski and Batory, Poland rightly feels that its economic life would be throttled should Germany seize its Baltic seaports. Danzig, formerly German, was granted to Poland by the treaty of Versailles. Although most of the Germans have been eased out of the Corridor to forestall German "self-determination" demands, Nazis have controlled the port for the past three years. As an alternative, in event Danzig should fall to the Reich forces, Poland within the last ten years has developed Gdynia, just west of Danzig, from a fishing village into a thriving modern port of some 100,000 population with a harbor that can accommodate 60 vessels, a sea wall nine miles long, traveling cranes, railroad tracks and warehouses. To defend this rich area, Poland has an army which military experts concede would be no match for the German Reichswehr but which should be able to hold any invader at bay until possible help could come from France, England and Russia. Poland also has an air force of 1,500 planes and is quick to point out that Berlin is only eighty miles from the Polish border. There is a chance Poland may outbluff Hitler as it did in 1934. If not, the Corridor could likely be the Sarajevo of a new world war.

Egyptian Princess Marries

The Crown Prince of Iran (right) stands beside the Princess Fawzia, of Egypt, and is escorted by her brother, King Farouk, at Cairo, at the Arbin Palace after they were married. The wedding, according to custom, was not attended by the Princess. The marriage strengthens the bond between the two, Iran and Egypt. (Central Press)

ARMY'S BIGGEST, NEWEST AIR BASE

This airview shows the new United States army air base nearing completion at Sacramento, Cal. It will be the largest, covering 22 acres and including three giant hangars, vast U-shaped supply depot and a railroad siding. The base will be an airplane "hospital" to which faulty ships will be sent for examination, tests and rebuilding, if necessary.

Commands Dog by Radio

Here is a view of the test conducted by Constable Denholm of the Sydney, Australia police with his dog, Zoe. Hidden from sight of the dog, Denholm broadcast commands by means of portable radio transmitter. A receiving set was strapped on Zoe's back and the dog obeyed every command, going up and down ladders, firing a revolver and filling a can of water. (Central Press)

Page Boys Dedicate Plaque

Preparing World Fair Camp for Scouts

Grover Whalen, head of the New York World's Fair, pines the shovel during installation of the first totem pole at groundbreaking for the Boy Scout camp at the exposition. Colonel Theodore Roosevelt (left), vice president of the Scouts' national council, and Dr. James E. West (at right in uniform), chief executive, approve Whalen's technique. (Central Press)

Switzerland Prepares for War

Swiss troops in gas masks man a field gun during army maneuvers in the home country of the League of Nations. The government ordered all roads and bridges on the Swiss-German border mined and troops mobilized all along the frontier as the little buffer state announced it would fight any territorial encroachments. (Central Press)

"Trailed" Hitler

As Rumania Bowed to Reich

Georges Tatarescu (right), Rumanian ambassador to France, receives his hat, and little else in the way of aid, after calling at the French Foreign Office in Paris to inform France of Germany's demand for control of Rumania's economic life. Unable to defend herself alone, little Rumania then announced she had agreed to Hitler's terms. (Central Press)

PROPOSED NEW WAR DEPARTMENT BUILDING

Architect's sketch of Washington's next building

Here is an architect's sketch of the first unit of the proposed new war department building to be erected in Washington. The unit will be six stories high and upon completion will house the offices of the secretary of war, the assistant secretary and high army officials.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

FAMILY QUARRELS OFTEN REFLECTED IN STATE OF CHILD'S NERVES.

Quarrelling between parents is a very serious thing for the child, particularly if it is long continued, for it leaves the child feeling upset and insecure.

The child loves his mother, but he loves his daddy too. He can't understand why there should be this fighting going on. Chances are he doesn't know what the argument is about, but he can feel the tension. If his mother cries, it only adds to his unhappiness. This is bad, for family cares and worries are often reflected in the child's nerves.

Our nurses have strict instructions that when they are upset emotionally they aren't to go near the children. This isn't just a blind order; it is based on personal observation of the children. Several times in the past, when something has gone wrong in the nursery and the nurses have become upset, we have seen it reflected in the children. It would give you a real surprise if you saw how quickly those children feel it when there is any play of emotions in those about them. Sometimes it has been enough to make them lose their appetites for a day.

Whatever the mismanagement of the child, or whatever his maladjustment in the home the nervous habits that arise should be a warning to the parents. I remember one youngster who had night terrors. After some time, I found out that his mother was in the habit of telling him she wouldn't love him any more if he was bad.

I know this is a fairly common way of making children obey—threatening them with dire consequences if they misbehave. Surely I don't have to point out how wrong this method is, for it shakes the very foundations on which his sense of security is built. His whole world revolves around his mother's and father's love. When he is told that will be withdrawn, there isn't anything left for him to feel sure about.

Some parents threaten to give the child away if he is naughty. It may be said half in jest, but the child may not know that. Another threat of the mother or father is to say they will leave. Whatever the threat is, if the child, who is most anxious to keep the affection of his parents, feels that for some reason it may suddenly slip away from him, he is disturbed right to the bottom of his soul.

Sometimes such threats are made to a child because there is jealousy over his love between father and mother. I remember a case in particular where a woman was so jealous of her boy's affection for his father that she tried in every way, including threats, to turn him against his dad.

All these ways of controlling behavior in the child are really appeals to fear. For the time they may accomplish the purpose, but in the end, results are apt to be disastrous. It is a good thing to remember that most of a child's habits are merely in imitation of some adult with whom he lives.

David Williamson of Wilmington township was brought into court on Wednesday morning and paroled after serving nine months in the workhouse. He was apprehended about a year ago when he and his brother were caught robbing a gas station in New Wilmington. He was placed on probation for two years.

Within the next week or ten days, letters will be mailed to taxpayers of the county against whom there are liens filed. Some of the liens may be wrong and that is what the commissioners want to find out.

Upon receipt of the letter the taxpayer will have twenty days in which to answer. If at that time he has not appeared with his tax receipts to show that the lien is improperly filed, it will be assumed that the lien is correct.

This will be the last step in the audit of the former county treasurer's books. When the liens are verified a final report will be made to the commissioners and payment demanded to the bonding company for the shortages. About 5000 letters will be sent out.

In the office of the Register and Recorder the following will have been probated. The will of J. Corwin Lechner, late of New Castle leaves the entire estate to his widow Minnie Lechner.

The will of Carrie May Miller, late of North Beaver township leaves the entire estate to John P. Miller, her husband.

The will of Elias Hintsa, late of Bessemer leaves his entire estate to Robert Ernest Hintsa, a relative.

AROUND CITY HALL

One of the biggest sewer bureau operations in some time here, got under way when employees under the jurisdiction of Carmi Glover, began cleaning the sanitary sewer in Croton avenue near Fern street. The sewer will be cleaned southward to a point near Neal street, South Side, Glover reported. He said there had been some congestion and this is being alleviated.

Public Safety Director J. Myron Rice was yet confined to his residence today because of illness. However, reports received in the municipal building state his condition is improved.

Approximately 200 men are working in Huron avenue which is to be paved between Lathrop street and Frank avenue. Glenn R. Throop, municipal engineer declared today.

Glenn R. Throop, city engineer, said that, when Huron avenue excavation has been completed the workers will be shifted to Blaine street, which is to be paved this spring.

JOB PLACEMENT

HARRISBURG, March 30—Nearly 15,000 persons have been placed in jobs by the Pennsylvania State Employment Service in 1939, with 12,500 of them going into private industry, according to a weekly report by Ernest Kelly, executive director of the Division of Unemployment Compensation and Employment Service.

Killed in Crash

C. P. Phonephoto

Louise Zarr (above), stewardess for the Braniff Airways, was one of eight persons killed when a Chicago-to-Dallas airliner crashed and burned shortly after taking off from Oklahoma City, Okla. Four others, including the pilot and co-pilot, were severely injured.

Westminster Man Opens Mission In Central Africa

Says Natives, Even Children, Of District, Are Invertebrate Smokers

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, March 30—The Anas people in north central Africa, men, women and even children above 12 years of age, are inveterate smokers, according to Rev. Donald McClure, Westminster college graduate of 1928, who has opened the first white mission in the district.

Tobacco is used in three forms: chewing, snuffing and smoking. Many times all three at the same time. When short of tobacco, the natives smoke charcoal and sometimes cow-dung.

As a result of their excessive smoking, according to the Westminster college missionary, the natives suffer badly from early aging, hacking coughs and weak constitutions.

Another Prophetic Sermon Tonight At Calvary Tabernacle

In spite of the inclement weather, the Wednesday night evangelistic service at the Calvary Gospel Tabernacle on the East Side was well attended. Rev. F. L. Holden, the guest speaker, gave a stirring prophetic message.

The pastor, Rev. R. J. Fredericks, stated this morning that more timely messages along prophetic lines were never given at the tabernacle. The subject announced by the speaker for the service tonight at 7:30 is "The Revelation of Jesus Christ and the Judgment of the Nations." There will be no service on Friday evening on account of the annual congregational meeting. Mr. Holden will be heard again on Sunday in three services, and all next week through Easter Sunday.

East Brook Man Has Found Many Indian Relics Near His Home

What is your hobby? Charles Krause, of East Brook, has an interesting hobby. He collects Indian relics and owns one of the most interesting and colorful collection of these objects around this section of the country. Equally interesting is the fact that the material has been discovered within a radius of twelve miles of his residence.

While yet a youngster, Charles came extremely near to being seriously injured when he was assisting with the cultivation on his family's farm, as seeing one of these articles, he would suddenly stoop to pick it up and would very nearly be hurt. With this natural background and with his rear yard filled to overflowing with chipping stones and such, he began earnestly to study this subject. Various books, pertaining to Indian settlements and names and also Indian Wars of northwestern Pennsylvania, have been his chief sources of information.

In his collection, he has chipping stones, which were used for cutting arrows, beads, ponding venison and other meats. Grooves are worn through the centers of each of these and they vary in size. There are also drills which served the purpose of making the wampum belts and pipes; tomahawks; bird stones, used to hunt fowl and smaller animals and bigger hunting stones, for larger animals as deer and bear; and most interesting are blunt edged flints which were used to wound dogs and horses so that they were unable to make an escape and the Indians later trained them and tamed them for domestic uses.

Sheltered places were the spots selected as camping grounds and the lower land, screened from the north and northwestern winds was an ideal place. Mr. Krause believes that he has discovered a former camp on the Elder farm on the New Wilmington road. Forming a semi-circle, three hundred yards long and two hundred fifty feet wide, the spot has furnished the hobbyist with smaller darts on the edges and he has found larger implements in the central part. On the Lakewood and Neshannock Falls road, many arrow heads and darts have been found and either the river has at some one time deposited these here, or there has been a similar camping site.

While hunting for these things, Mr. Krause uses a cradle shaped sieve, affixed with a heavy screen wire, and digs a trench, measuring several feet deep, to search for the smaller stones and flints, in much the same manner as one searches and sifts for minerals. His home made method is to find a large stick and turn over the surface stones and ground dirt.

Rougher and unfinished rocks and implements are an interesting feature of the collection. These have been used by earlier tribes and possibly by the first inhabitants of Northern America. White transparent flint, shaped into darts and tools, were found, and Mr. Krause states that these have been brought in from another section of the country and are not native here.

Most treasured of all his possessions is a green colored stone, which has been worked and polished into a bead in the shape of either a snake's head or the head of some small animal, which he wears on his watch chain.

The most unusual and personal customs of the tribes are learned through this study.

GET UP AT NIGHT?

If you have disturbed sleep, irregularity of urination or burning and soreness caused by excess acid, you may need a diuretic stimulant such as Dr. Pierce's A-nuric. The action of A-nuric in flushing the kidneys, dilating and relieving irritation has given relief to thousands of men and women. Mr. W. C. Peasley, Route 2, Bradford, Pa., says: "Because of loss of rest I would feel so tired and worn out, never seemed to have pep enough to do my work properly, but since using Dr. Pierce's A-nuric Tablets I feel just fine and am not annoyed by getting up at night." Buy A-nuric at your drug store today.

Engine-Tune Up

Here is what you get: Tighten cylinder head, manifold, fan belt, generator, bracket bolts, clean and adjust spark plugs, set ignition timing, adjust carburetor, valve clearance, generator output, oil pressure and manifold heat control, wash air cleaner, blow out gas lines.

Warn GNCA Ballot Deadline Nearing

Greater New Castle Association general election ballots are due back in the GNCA office at the end of this week. Subscribers to the new civic organization were reminded today. The primary was conducted some time ago.

The final ballots, temporary GNCA officers said, must carry a postmark not later than April 1.

PUTTING IN NEW GATE
Eric R. R. workmen, on Wednesday, were putting in a new crossing gate, on the West Side. The gate had been broken off by a motor cyclist, a week ago.

BLONDIE

SURPRISE, DEAR... I QUIT MY JOB SO I COULD DEVOTE ALL MY TIME TO PROMOTING MY BOUNCING SOAP

WHAT?

I QUIT MY JOB...I RESIGNED

YOU ASKED FOR IT!

BLONDIE...WAKE UP...I DIDN'T QUIT MY JOB...I JUST TOLD YOU THAT TO SEE HOW YOU'D TAKE IT, IN CASE I DID

WELL NOW YOU KNOW!

JOE PALOOKA

HELLO...YES THIS IS HARRY SMITH.

I DECIDED I'D BETTER CALL YOU. THIS IS MISS GRAHAM. I CAN'T TALK NOW.

OH YES MISS GRAHAM...I'M DELIGHTED TO HEAR FROM YOU.

PLEASE, MR. SMITH...I MUST TALK FAST...I'LL BE HAVING A SODA AT THE DRIVE-IN AT THE CORNER OF SUNSET AND VINE AT THREE O'CLOCK SHARP.

YOU KNOW WHO I AM. I RECOGNIZED YOU, MR. SMITH. I'VE GOT TO TELL YOU EVERYTHING I REALIZED THAT AND SO I CALLED YOU.

I'M IN THIS FOR JOE'S SAKE. IT MAY MEAN THE ONE CHANCE OF CLEARING HIS NAME. OH I'M SO DESPERATELY ANXIOUS CAN I TRUST YOU? I GUESS I HAVE TO.

MY WORD OF HONOR I'M NOT ONLY CURIOUS, BUT I'D GO A LONG WAY TO HELP JOE. I'M REALLY HIS FRIEND. ALTHO MOST OF THE BUNCH BELIEVE HE'S A RAT.

MUGGS AND SKEETER

NOW LISTEN, THERE'S NO USE OF US ARGUING ANY FURTHER ABOUT THIS THING... AS AN OFFICER OF THIS SHIP I'VE GOTTA TAKE YOU UP TO THE CAPTAIN'S REPORT YOU AS STOWAWAYS!! IF I DON'T, I'LL LOSE MY JOB!! SEE?

...AND IF YOU DO WE'LL TELL HIM ABOUT YOU TEACHIN' YOUR PARROT TO INSULT HIM... AN' YOU LOSE YOUR JOB ANYWAY!! SO EITHER WAY YOU LOSE, SEE?

NOW WAIT!! IF YOU KIDS'LL PROMISE TO KEEP MUM ABOUT THE PARROT... I'LL SHOW YA HOW WE CAN ALL GET OFF LIGHT!! IT WORKS THIS WAY... SEE? I TAKE YA UP TO THE CAPTAIN... SEE?

NOW WAIT!! LISTEN!! THAT PUTS ME IN THE CLEAR... I'VE DONE ME DUTY!!...SEE?... THEN AFTER HE BAWLS YA OUT N' BLOWS OFF STEAM, HE'LL TURN YA BACK OVER TO ME TO GIVE YA THE WORKS!! THEN I'LL GO LIGHT ON YA FOR NOT SNITCHIN' TO THE CAPTAIN ABOUT THE PARROT!! SEE?

HE WONT!! IF HE DOES, WE CAN STILL TELL ON HIM!! THAT'S A SWELL IDEA, BOSUN!! LET'S GO!!

BUT SUPPOSE HE SHOULD DOUBLE-CROSS US, MUGGS!!

OH, NO!! NOTHIN' COIN!!

BIG SISTER

AW, HECK! THIS IS A FINE FIX TO BE IN! DAD WANTS ME TO GO WITH HIM TO THE MOUNTAINS.

I KNOW HE DOES, BUT HE WON'T SAY YES TO IT UNTIL BETH SAYS SO FIRST.

AND BETH WON'T SAY I CAN GO UNTIL DAD SAYS YES. WHAT CAN A GUY DO IN THAT KIND OF A HOLE?

ETTA KETT

I'LL TALK TO THE CHIEF. HE'LL HAVE TO BELIEVE ME.

SURE, I KNOW HE'S THE REAL STEVE... THAT'S WHY I'M KEEPING HIM IN JAIL... WHERE HE'LL BE SAFE!

YOU KIN PHONE HIM IN SING SING... HE'LL HAVE A NUMBER!

LISTEN, I'M STEPHEN NINETY. NOT THIS OTHER GUY... HE'S A FAKE! HE STOLE MY CAR, BAGS N' EVERYTHING!!

THIS BIRD WHO'S TRYING TO FEATHER HIS NEST WITH MISS NINETY'S MONEY IS A DANGEROUS CROOK!

...AND HE PUT THAT JEWELRY IN STEVE'S SAXOPHONE CASE TO FRAME HIM!

RIGHT!

I'M PLANNING TO TRAP THE RAT! THIS TELEGRAM OUGHT TO DO THE TRICK!

MARVELOUS! WILL HE SQUEAL?

BRINGING UP FATHER

WHAT HAS HAPPENED—POPPY? MOTHER'S PET BROTHER HASN'T BEEN AROUND TODAY.

I FIXED THAT—I JUST BORROWED MRS. DAN DE LIONS WATCH DOG—THAT DOG WON'T LET ANYONE COME ON TH' PROPERTY—I'VE GOT HIM OUT IN THE YARD.

GOSH—IT'S NEARLY ONE O'CLOCK—IT'S TIME I FED THAT DOG HIS LUNCH—

WHAT?

HE MUST BE A NIGHT WATCHMAN'S DOG AN' SLEEPS IN TH' DAY-TIME—

BRICK BRADFORD—And the Metal Monster

WE'VE GOT TO LOSE AVIL BLUE—HE'S FOLLOWING US TO DISCOVER THE LOCATION OF MY SECRET LABORATORY

CAN'T THAT SHIP'S A FASTER TYPE THAN THIS ONE?

BUT WHEN DARKNESS COMES—

NO USE—IT'LL BE A CLEAR NIGHT AND HE CAN FOLLOW OUR FLYING LIGHTS

OUR ONE CHANCE IS A NICE BIG CLOUD BANK—I'M GOING TO FOOL HIM BY VEERING SOUTH, LOOKING FOR CLOUDS

THEY'RE CHANGING DIRECTION—GET CLOSER, PILOT!

School Districts Assured Of Help

Bill Appropriating One Million To Distressed Districts On Second Reading

CERTAIN TO PASS STATE LEGISLATURE

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 30.—Financially distressed school districts today were assured of help from the state in meeting their budgetary problems. A bill appropriating $1,000,000 to these districts will be on the second reading calendar next Monday night when the legislature reconvenes for the week.

Rep. Raymond Sollenberger, Blair, and Rep. Ivan Watkins, Schuylkill, both Republicans, sponsored the bill, which was given immediate consideration yesterday by the appropriations committee. It was given first reading shortly before adjournment for the week.

Rushed Through
"The bill will be rushed through both houses as rapidly as possible, in order that the money may be immediately available," said Speaker Elwood J. Turner.

The decision to speed passage of the bill was made at a conference of Gov. Arthur H. James with presiding officers and majority floor leaders of both House and Senate.
Rep. John L. Boney, D., Luzerne, introduced a bill to appropriate $8-000,000 to financially distressed districts, but this was not acted on by committee.

To Hear Aims Of Small Business

Luncheon Audience Friday Will Learn Plans From Akron Man

A large audience of New Castle business and industrial leaders will hear a speaker outline the aims of the National Small Business Men's association at a public luncheon in
The Castleton Friday at 12 o'clock.
Sponsors of the rally said today that a representative crowd will hear H. A. Clappison, Akron, official spokesman for the national association, at the noon meeting.

Frances S. Sowersby, who signed invitations mailed out to scores in this community, will preside tomorrow.

Plans are to organize a local unit of the business men's group following Clappison's talk.

U. S. Girl Weds Maharajah

Maharaja Yeshwant

Marguerite Lawler Branyen

Wedding of the 30-year-old Maharajah Yeshwant of Indore, Indian potentate, and Marguerite Lawler Branyen, former Los Angeles nurse, in Europe recently, has just been disclosed. The two met while he was a patient in a Los Angeles hospital. The young ruler, Oxford educated, took the Indian throne in 1926 on the abdication of his father, who also wed an American girl, Nancy Ann Miller of Seattle in 1928.

DeMonaco Brothers Are Great Help To Championship Team

John At Third Base And Albert Utility Infielder Have Helped West Pittsburgh Win

There is another brother act on the championship West Pittsburgh baseball team that attracts quite a lot of attention—the DeMonaco brothers.

John DeMonaco has played third base for the City league champions for the past several years and covers a lot of ground. He has a fine throwing arm and has cut off many runs at the plate on the squeeze play. In batting he ranks with the best in the league and is a very valuable addition to the "Gas House," according to Manager Danny DeGenova.

Albert DeMonaco is used as utility infielder and can be used at either second, third or short when the occasion calls. He is a fine fielder and a good hitter, but has a tough time breaking into the lineup with his brother John at third. John is a pitcher at short, James "Chas" Markey at second. He is also a dependable hitter and has been used in the "pinch" many times and has delivered.

Both John and Albert can hardly wait until the 1939 baseball season swings open.

Title Series Is Evened Up By Second U. P.

"Greyhounds" To Be Honored On Friday

Banquet Will Be Tendered Finalists In Class B.—W.
P. I. A. L. Tourney

New Wilmington high school's basketball team, winner of Section 20 race and finalists in the annual Class B. W. P. I. A. L. tournament, will be honored at a banquet in the U. P. church, New Wilmington, Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The school board is sponsoring the party.

Grover Washbaugh, Westminster college coach, will be the principal speaker.

Overnight Sports

(International News Service)
There is practically no doubt that Henry Armstrong will retain his welterweight title in 15 or fewer rounds against Davey Day of Chicago tomorrow night notwithstanding all contrary rumors.

Joe Jacobs looks forward to piling up his second million dollars with two-ton Tony Galento.

Lou Nova signs up a swanky Nyack, N. Y., estate for training for his Max Bear bout.

Coach Carl Snavely puts Cornell gridders on bicycles to improve their leg and back muscles.

Yale and Army to meet in intercollegiate polo finals.

Nation's greatest pro and amateur golfers tee off in sixth annual $5,000 invitation Augusta Masters' tourney.

A Los Angeles matchmaker led with his bankroll and made Joe Louis a 20 to 1 favorite over Jack Roper in their heavyweight title bout in Los Angeles April 17.

First Baseman Rip Collins of the Chicago Cubs was sold outright to the Los Angeles club of the Pacific Coast league.

ARCHERY CLUB
On March 28, an archery club was formed by a group of young men, for the purpose of promoting the Ancient Art of Archery and Good Fellowship in New Castle.

It was agreed to name it the New Castle Archery club. Temporary officers were elected and a constitution was set up.

The instigators are Ed. McCreary, Joe Sanfilippo, Harry Young, Sam Sanfilippo, and Gust Sanfilippo.

The first business meeting will be announced later.

That Dodger Rookie Sensation

HAROLD (PETE) REISER

Meet Harold (Pete) Reiser, the 19-year-old St. Louis youth who was acquired by the Brooklyn Dodgers for $100 and has proved the sensation of the major league training camps. Pete, competing for Manager Leo Durocher's shortstop position, is a switch hitter and his clouting has made him the most-talked-of rookie in camp. Pete collected eight straight hits, including three home runs, before being benched by a charley horse.

Where's the War, Boys?

Joe Louis at dude ranch

Meet "two-gun" Joe Louis, not "two-ton" Tony Galento. Joe is about to embark on a hunting trip at a Negro dude ranch at Victorville, Cal., where he is training for his bout with Jack Roper in Los Angeles, April 17.

GIRLS WILL MEET

There will be a meeting at the Arena Friday night at 7 o'clock of all girls interested in playing softball this year with the Shadyside team. The coach of the team is Jimmy Geramita.

Church Golfers To Meet Tonight

There will be an important meeting of the team captains and members of the various committees of the New Castle Church golf league tonight at the Elliott-Waddington store at 8 o'clock. Plans for the annual spring banquet and for the opening of the league on Thursday, May 4 will be up for discussion.

GOOD SHOT? 200 OUT OF 200!

Harry Reeves

Annie Oakley? Jesse James? Billy the Kid? Heck, they were only flashes in the pan compared to this sharpshooter, Officer Harry Reeves of the Detroit police department. Reeves only made 200 hits out of 200 shots with a .38 caliber revolver in a pistol tourney at Miami, Fla.

K. Pulaskis To Have Fast Team In City League

Manager Alexander Maslyk Calls Meeting Of Players For Tonight At K. P. Hall

The K. Pulaski baseball team will give the West Pittsburgh "Gas House" a tough fight for the pennant in the 1939 City Baseball League, it was announced today by Manager Alexander "Lefty" Maslyk as he called for a special meeting of the K. P. players for tonight at the hall at 7:30 o'clock.

The Oaklanders finished around the fourth place last summer, and this year expect to be one, two or three, and are eyeing the pennant strongly. All of the 1938 players should be at the meeting as several important business matters are to be discussed. Plans will be made for the coming season and the idea of new uniforms will be talked over. If uniforms are approved, the players will be measured for suits.

The following are asked to be at the meeting without fail: Teddy "Peaches" Kolec, Al Ostrosky, Joe Ostrosky, Brownie Ostrosky, Johnny Smialowski, Walter Brysh, John Soho, Walter "Shennie" Soho, Al Glasser, Money Severa, Joe Porada, Cab Mrozek, Ted Janoski, Budar, Lefty Masly, Mike Coates, Flier Mateja and Walter Gogvacy.

Mormons Seek Radio Permit

Ask Right To Purchase Short-Wave Station With Long Range

(International News Service)
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah.—The Latter Day Saints (Mormon) church is seeking a permit to operate a radio station powerful enough to blanket the world.

David O. McKay, second counselor in the first presidency of the church one of the owners of Radio Service Corporation of Utah, which operates station KSL, has asked the Federal Communications Commission for authority to buy and transfer to Salt Lake City short-wave station W8XAA, now owned by the Chicago Federation of Labor.

"The short-wave station would present the better side of American culture to foreign countries by offering varied programs of entertainment, news and educational features," McKay said.

Under present plans, the Church would increase the power of the station from 500 to 10,000 watts—enough to send signals to virtually every part of the world.

FRANCE ALARMED BY FALLING BIRTHRATE

(International News Service)
PARIS, Jan. 23.—France is spending six billion francs, approximately $150,000,000, annually to raise the birth-rate—and unsuccessfully.

These figures were revealed during the recent budget debates at the Chamber of Deputies when the government and municipal loss in income was computed at that amount.

Numerous items of free hospitalization and various state and municipal allocations bring the total to six billion.

Elephants are not afraid of mice, as a popular superstition would have you believe.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

Well here it is a nice wet day... what's nice about it... that's for you to figure out. But there is one thing that we can't figure out to save our bloomers' necks. We have here in New Castle certain organizations that have all the faith in the world in the old town. They are doing everything they possibly can to make it a better place in which to live. They are buying everything they can from local merchants. Then we have organizations that like to put forth a front like they are back of the town... they distribute printed word that they think this and that should be done... that is all very fine... but where do they get this material fixed up... in other words printed? When special programs are put on, where do the chairmen of some of these organizations get their material. Folks if we are to keep New Castle growing we must do all we can to keep the buying here in New Castle.

Of course we realize that some things cannot be bought here in town... then we say... go and buy where you can. But don't pass up the local merchant without giving him a fair chance.

We hope that every red-blooded American will plan on taking a few minutes or an hour if he can... to attend some sort of worship service on Good Friday. Quite a few downtown stores will be closed for a few hours on Friday afternoon. We are hoping that every one will see fit to join in this spirit. We were flabbergasted to hear that some say that Good Friday doesn't mean any more than a parade. Surely the makers of this statement were not sincere.

Tonight the Lawrence County Sportsmen will gather in the dining room of the Cathedral for a chicken dinner. Speeches will be heard... laughter will raise the roof... pictures will enlighten the crowd and each and every one will go home with a better understanding of Pennsylvania Game Protection.

Just one word about the classified ad page. Read it when you are thinking about house cleaning, etc.

Moves Forward

By LESLIE GOULD

NEW YORK, March 30.—The stock market took a hopeful view of events abroad today and made further progress in the improvement which got under way yesterday. Prices were steady at the start and then moved forward under a small influx of buying. Gains ran to a point and more in some leaders. Domestic business news included a rise in car loadings and the 14th consecutive gain in bank clearings over a year ago.

Issues to rise a point and more were Westinghouse, Union Pacific and United Aircraft. Douglas also was up this much but gave up part of the advance later.

Steel shares moved up for fractional gains. Steel was up nearly a point at one time. Motors followed a similar pattern, with Chrysler and General Motors up fractionally.

American Smelting, Union Pacific, Kennecott was backward and Anaconda firm.

Some firms firmed up in sympathy with further strength in Union Pacific. Utilities were quiet and mostly somewhat higher. Chemicals were sluggish. Elsewhere the tone was firm.

Gains were quiet and cotton mixed in commodities, while minor staples were dull.

Start First Coal Fire In Boiler At New Power Plant

Blaze Eliminates Foreign Matter, Cleans Tubes, Drums, Headers

ACTUALLY, IT IS FIRST BOILER TEST

Power Company Officials Plan Formal Public Inspection In June

Coal was burned in the boiler at the new power plant at West Pittsburgh for the first time Wednesday, when so called boiling-out fire was started. The boiling-out process is done for the purpose of eliminating all grease and foreign matter, and thoroughly cleanses the interior of boiler tubes, drums and headers preparatory to filling the boiler with the distilled and especially treated feed water, which will actually be used in the plant for the generation of steam. The water used for the boiling-out fire contains special chemical ingredients, which cut the grease and cleanse the interior thoroughly.

First Boiler Test
While the fire was not started to actually generate steam or test the boiler under any kind of operating conditions, it nevertheless does constitute the first test of the various auxiliaries needed to operate the boiler. One by one during the past week, various pieces of auxiliary apparatus have been connected up through its particular control equipment and started up for test runs. At the present time one complete coal burning unit has been tested and has operated satisfactorily. This includes, first of all, the coal-handling equipment, to bring the coal from the mammoth outdoor storage pile into the coal bunkers of the plant. It includes the pulverizing mill, which has been charged with heavy steel balls, which, when rolled around inside the revolving mill, crush and pulverize the coal to the fineness of talcum powder. Other equipment includes the coal feeders, the pulverizer, exhaust fans and in addition, the various fans needed to provide the tremendous quantities of air needed for combustion.

Use 300 Tons Daily.
The modern power plant boiler, such as the one installed at West Pittsburgh, extracts almost 90 per cent of the energy from the coal and sends it in the form of steam to the turbine. This high efficiency has been secured only through engineering developments that have introduced new improvements and efficiencies into every aspect of boiler operation.

The control of air flow is one of the most important of all these phases. Surprisingly enough, it takes 13½ pounds of air to burn every pound of coal used in the boiler, and the boiler will use on an average of 300 tons of coal per day. This is some indication of the vast quantities of air which must be moved by the draft fans of the boiler.

Rapid progress can be seen in all of the construction work at the plant. Overtime for many of the men is being resorted to, so that the work may be rushed to completion. Plans are now being made to turn steam into the turbine within the next three weeks.

The company is also making arrangements for the formal opening of the plant during the latter part of June, at which time the public generally will be invited to see the new plant in complete operation.

Industrial Activity Gained, Index Shows

Shenango Valley District Sees 11 Per Cent Rise In February

General industrial activity in the Shenango Valley district at the end of February stood at 64 percent of capacity as compared with 53 percent in February a year ago, the February industrial and business review prepared by one of New Castle's larger firms showed today.

The index is based on the operations of 36 industries in Lawrence, Mercer, Beaver and Butler counties.

Consolidated postal receipts for New Castle, Sharon, Greenville and Zellenople in February this year rose 13.5 percent over those of the same month last year. The consolidated receipts for the same district for the two-month period ending February 28 showed a 1.5 percent increase over the corresponding two-month period of a year ago.

Federal Reserve figures showed the New Castle-Sharon industrial area employment at 65.8 percent at the end of February this year. A year ago it was 64.0. Payrolls for the area stood at 73.9 percent this February as compared with 64.4 percent in February of 1938.

Old Theatre In Cascade Park Being Revealed

There are many New Castle folks that can remember the splendid open air theatre at Cascade Park, some thirty and more years ago, which was crowded with patrons six evenings of the week.

Since that time, alterations were made, the building put under roof, and it has been known for some years past, as the "fun house."

Now in turn, portions of the latter are being dismantled. The original entrance, stage, dressing rooms, and balconies, still remain.

C. C. Coulthard, park superintendent, states that there are some possibilities for the use of this spacious building, with some alterations, for the holding of conventions, summer evening church services, summer theatre, and many other purposes of like nature. The building is completely wired for electric light.

Shower Is Given To Fire Victims

About thirty friends and neighbors, of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bonk, of 136 Prospect street, New Castle Boro, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Braden, of Prospect street, to give a "shower" to Mr. and Mrs. Bonk.

The latter's home and personal effects were completely destroyed as the result of a fire, occasioned by an overheated furnace, over a week ago. Fortunately all the occupants escaped unhurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Bonk were the recipients of many household articles to replenish their home.

Mission Prepares 'Homecoming' Plans

Harry P. Sloan, one-time City Rescue Mission superintendent and noted gospel singer, and the famed McDonald trio of McDonald, O., will be heard during the "homecoming program" of the mission Sunday afternoon and evening, April 2.

School Vacation Starts On Friday

All the public schools of New Castle will close the afternoon of Friday, March 31, for the Easter vacation. Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, announced today. The schools will be closed for the week following and will resume on Tuesday morning, April 11.

Mt. Jackson Notes

CLASS HOLDS PARTY
One of the pleasant social events of the past week was a party held by the Welcome Circle Bible class at the home of Ruth Bradley, with fifteen in attendance. The entertainment of the afternoon consisted of games and contests, prizes being awarded to Jean Martin, Esther McCullough, Bertha Mars, Rubie Metz and Anis Roney. A delicious lunch was served by Hazel Butler, Mae Pitts and the hostess.

SOCIAL GATHERING
Members of the Young People's Christian Union, of the United Presbyterian church, enjoyed a social time, Wednesday evening, when they met in the basement of the church.

A business session was conducted and new officers elected for the ensuing year: president, Ruth Barris; Louise Thompson, secretary; Alice Perrott, treasurer; pianist, Almyra Pitts, and assistant, Louise Butler. A social time was enjoyed during the remainder of the evening, and delicious refreshments were served by the committee.

CARD PARTY
The Ladies Auxiliary of the Earl J. Watt Post, American Legion Unit No. 638, will entertain at a card party Friday evening, March 31, in the Legion Home.

MT. JACKSON NOTES
Rev. R. G. Woodburn and William Menor attended a meeting of the former presidents of the Young People's Christian Union, Monday evening, held at New Brighton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burr of Cleveland, O., were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Laughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Henry and children, of Washington, D. C., visited friends and relatives in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Joseph Gilmore and daughter, Eleanor, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brennard, of Struthers, O., last week.

TO PRESENT CANTATA
The community chorus will present an Easter Cantata, "The Resurrection Song," by Roy E. Nolte, Sunday evening, April 9, in the local high school auditorium. The above is being presented under the direction of Loy E. Gwin, with Leora Hanna as accompanist.

Of the 65 million men mobilized by all nations during the World War, 57.6 percent were either killed, wounded, taken prisoner, or died from disease or other natural causes.

BESSEMER

SWEDISH MISSION CHURCH
